

Plant enthusiasts will be delighted to visit the colourful and scented parks and gardens in Flanders. An invitation to discover the botanical, cultural and historical wealth of our heritage.

One of these gardens, is the Mont des Récollets in Cassel. It shelters an impressive Flemish garden which has been granted the "Remarkable Garden" label by the Ministry for culture. Plants are classified by themes linked to history: Renaissance, traditional 19th century gardens, etc.

This garden is not the only one. Please visit our site to get more information.
