

These small traditional old-style bistrots are warm and welcoming places in which you can feel at home. They are perfect surroundings in which to sample either typical regional dishes. You can also initiate yourselves into the pleasures of traditional Flemish games.

Please visit our website to get more information

---